

ALAHEDO

THE ALABAMA ASSOCIATION OF HIGHER EDUCATION DIVERSITY OFFICERS
Impacting Alabama's World of Higher Education

---

- ALAHEDO is the professional association of diversity officers in higher education across the state of Alabama where one member can make an impact from day one.
- ALAHEDO will give you the opportunity to become a charter member in an association founded to respond to diversity issues facing Alabama's higher education institutions today and destined to be the premier diversity association tomorrow.
- ALAHEDO will give you a voice in unison with other diversity officers across the state to advocate for policies and initiatives that support diversity in higher education institutions.
- ALAHEDO will provide you with accurate information and updates on current issues in the news impacting higher education in Alabama and the nation.
- ALAHEDO will provide you with a statewide diversity officer listserv facilitating your discussion and sharing of ideas, activities, issues, problems and solutions with others.
- ALAHEDO will communicate the message to others that diversity is a priority to you as a diversity officer in higher education and a core value at your institution.
- ALAHEDO will introduce you to leading experts in diversity and share their advice and opinions on current diversity issues through emails, publications and programs.
- ALAHEDO will invite you to attend the annual association's meeting held in conjunction with the Alabama System's Diversity Conference each fall where a comprehensive program of diversity topics are addressed.

Join today! We need you and you need us!

See the enclosed application.